

Sheryn Comer

Secretary

As a keen viewer of televised court cases and unsolved mysteries Sheryn has the ideal job. The position of secretary at Dennis King Law enables her to combine her wide-ranging experience and skills in corporate office administration with her intrigue for the law. She values being part of a hard-working and compatible team, and believes the open-plan of the office does much to facilitate good communications and work efficiency.

Sheryn has travelled extensively overseas, yet she has always managed to find her way back home to Taranaki. Her favourite destinations; Austria and Arizona. Her most daring moments: white water rafting in Austria and parasailing in Greece, eating snails in France and rattlesnake in USA. Her most memorable moment: taking in the spectacular sight of the Grand Canyon.

In Sheryn's spare time she enjoys socialising with friends, listening to music, and creating a variety of arts and crafts.
